AMENDMENT TO CORRECT THE PARTIES NAMES

Scanned

Comes now, Ricardo De Los Santos Mora, acting pro se, and in support of his Amendment to correct the parties names on plaintiff original complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1350 filed on January 18, 2006, and Amendments, which were filed on April, 2006 hereby states as follows:

When plaintiff filed the original complaint, he placed as defendants "Delaware Police Department." At the time, plaintiff could not remember what police department in Delaware arrested him. Because plaintiff was not able to name the correct parties on his complaint, the Court ordered plaintiff to amend his complaint. In an intent to get the correct parties names, plaintiff wrote to the Clerk of the Supreme Court of Delaware requesting information regarding the name of arresting officer and police department. The Clerk told plaintiff that the Court does not have any information regarding plaintiff case in Delaware. (see attached letter from the Clerk).

Plaintiff then asked some family member to find out the name of arresting officer and the name of the police department who arrested plaintiff in Delaware. Plaintiff's family told plaintiff that the police department was Dover Police Department, and the Chief of Police was Horbarth. Plaintiff "erroneously" placed the Dover Police Dept.

and Dover Chief of Police as parties in his complaint.

Plaintiff is hereby requesting this Honorable Court to drop the Dover Chief of Police, Horvath, and the Dover Police Department from the complaint; and plaintiff request this Honorable Court to AMEND THE COMPLAINT to read RICARDO A. DE LOS SANTOS MORA V. ATTORNEY GENERAL, MARY JANE BRADY; POLICE OFFICER, A. SCOTT DAVIS; AND HARRINGTON POLICE DEPARTMENT, wich are the correct parties in this case. (see record of plaintiff arrest in motion filed by Chief of Police's counsel).

Plaintiff inform this Honorable Court of the Order from the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia Alexandria Division. The court of Virginia "erroneously" placed Mr. Bradenham II as a party in a complaint similar to plaintiff's. The Virginia court recognized its error and dropped Mr. Bradenham II from the complaint and AMENDED the complaint with the correct party. See PEDRO A. DE LOS SANTOS V. NEWPORT NEWS POLICE DEPARTMENT, No: 1:06 cv 367 (LMB/BRP).

Dated: September 28 2006.
